

Living Biblical Principles Bible (LBP) Study Class

September 14, 2015

Mission: Encouraging and educating others to make decisions based on biblical principles (Word of God)

Website: www.surporasparksthen.com -Review vision, values, guiding principles and belief statements of LBP. Select the About Us tab, scroll down to Surpora Thomas Ministries then select Living Biblical Principles Bible Study.

Subject: How to Receive and Release the Power of the Blood Covenant

Purpose of Study:

“We must know the power of the blood if we are to know the power of God. Our knowing experimentally the power of the Word, the power of Holy Spirit, and the power of prayer is dependent upon our knowing the power of the blood of Christ” R. A. Torrey

Objectives:

After completion of this study, the attendees will be able to do the following:

1. Compare the blood covenant of the OT with the one in the NT
2. Communicate God’s purpose, plan, provisions, power, promises and protection of the blood covenant. In relation to the covenant see Jesus as our representative, partner, substitution and guarantor.
3. Consistently receive and enjoy all the benefits of the blood covenant
4. Counsel others on the effects of applying Jesus blood in prayer,, over ourselves, love ones, relationships, property and circumstances
5. Commit to developing and maintaining an intimate relationship and lifestyle with Christ
6. Consult with the Holy Spirit expecting an outpouring of the three different levels of the anointing
7. Compliance to God’s Word in all situations

Scriptures:

Book of Hebrews- Jesus is represented as the precious blood of the everlasting Covenant.

Exodus-Chapter 12; 40:15; Lev 14:10-18 and other selected Scriptures

*Objectives for How to Receive and Release the Power of the Blood Covenant
Surpora Thomas, Anointed Teacher
September 14, 2015*